RVSPG Code of Ethics & Professional Responsibility

RVSPG members are mindful that the soundness, usefulness, prosperity and future of our industry depend upon their honor and integrity, and on the manner in which they interact with each other and with the seniors whose interests they serve.

This RVSPG Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility (Code of Ethics) describes values shared and rules applicable to all members of the River Valley Senior Providers Group. Under this Code of Ethics, RVSPG members generally are responsible and will be held responsible for the actions or failures to act. Failure to follow the Code of Ethics may result in Board action and discipline. Accordingly, each RVSPG Member agrees to observe, maintain and adhere to the following set of values:

Value 1: Fairness

RVSPG Members shall treat consumers with respect and dignity, and in a manner that is fair, reasonable and as they would want to be treated.

Value 2: Confidentiality

RVSPG Members shall appropriately respect, protect, preserve and safeguard the privacy and confidentiality of information obtained from and about consumers.

Value 3: Integrity

RVSPG Members shall act with integrity by adhering to the letter and spirit of this Code of Ethics, which includes disclosing potential conflicts of interest to consumers in a timely basis.

Value 4: Competence

RVSPG Members shall provide services to consumers in a competent manner, acquiring and maintaining necessary and appropriate knowledge, skills and experience to do so, and referring consumers to others who possess such knowledge, skills and experience when they are unable to do so.

Value 5: Diligence

RVSPG Members shall provide services to consumers with diligence and due care, promptly, thoughtfully, in a manner considerate of the interests of consumers and fully in compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Value 6: Professionalism

RVSPG Members' conduct shall reflect positively on RVSPG, the profession and the industry.
